* The Customs' Receipts are for the calendar year, except in the case of 1851-52. It is explained that it is impossible to give the separate figures for each Kingdom for the financial year, but the total figures differ by less than £50,000 from those of the financial year.

Note.—This Return being in continuation of Return No. 407, of 1854, the total of the Gross Revenue means the Revenue collected in each division of the United Kingdom, and does not represent the taxation levied on each.
